Please Note;

- The team with a better goal aggregate at the end of the second leg match shall be the winner of the tie.
- If teams are still tying by rule 14(5) b (i) above, the team with greatest number of away goals scored in the matches between the concerned teams shall determine the winner.
- If the teams are not separated by 14(5)(b)(ii) above, the winner of the Penalties (penalty shoot-out) mark shall be the winner.
- If the teams are not separated by 14(5)(b)(iii) above, a coin may be tossed to determine the winner where time cannot allow for Penalties (penalty shoot-out) or their continuation.
